

DID YOU HEAR?

- Washington County is closing the Rosalie E. Wahl library on December 31, 2011.
- Lake Elmo residents can continue to access Washington County libraries by purchasing a library card from any branch after January 1, 2012.
- Every household has the opportunity to have their purchase reimbursed by Lake Elmo. Mail or bring to Lake Elmo City Hall - your original receipt and this "Request for Reimbursement" form.
- A new community based public library is in the works. A library board is in place, a part-time consultant has been hired, nearly 10,000 books have been collected, sites for the new library have been researched, and an early spring 2012 opening is anticipated.
